

Jimmie Dawl Clopton

November 7, 1944 - January 26, 2026

Jimmie Dawl Clopton, age 81, passed into the arms of Jesus on January 26, 2026. He was born on November 7, 1944, in Houston, Texas, to Jarvil Dulan Clopton and Martha Wagner Clopton. Services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, January 31, 2026, at Faith Temple Church, officiated by Pastor Jim Moore. The family will receive visitors one hour prior to the service at the church. Burial will follow at Lexington Cemetery.

A driven and hardworking man, Jimmie spent much of his life on the road as a truck driver, eventually retiring from Griffin Industries. Along his journey, he met and married the love of his life, Glenda Stow, on February 11, 1987. Together, they raised two sons, Jim Alan Clopton and Aaron Clopton.

Jimmie took great pride in his vehicles and, most of all, his family, whom he loved dearly. He enjoyed staying busy, keeping his vehicles spotless, watching football, barbecuing, and cooking delicious meals. He loved listening to and playing music on his guitar, hunting, fishing, and spoiling his precious little dogs. A man of faith, Jimmie loved reading his Bible and faithfully attended Faith Temple Church, where he treasured the sermons of his beloved pastor, Jim Moore.

Jimmie truly loved to drive, putting in countless miles hand in hand with his wife and side by side with his sons. Though the road was long, the ride felt far too short. He has gone on ahead to check the road, and we are grateful for the journey we shared. Until we meet again on streets paved with gold, he will be deeply missed.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jarvil and Martha Clopton; his brother, Buford Clopton; and his son, Jim Alan Clopton.

He is survived by his loving wife, Glenda Clopton; his son and daughter in law, Aaron and Wanda Clopton; his granddaughters, Tory and Heather Clopton; his grandson and his wife, Jeryd and Mayerlin Clopton; his great grandson, Ezequiel Clopton; his brother, Gary Clopton and family; and his sister, Regina Bradford and family.

“ Met in Houston, got to know his Mom and Dad. They were great and loving people. He started work where his Dad work as a welder. It wasn't long before he went to work at an appliance company. He had a son Jimmie Alan Clopton. He loved his son and his son loved him very much. He really loved family reunions with his Dad and family. Jimmie moved to Lexington where his family now lived., after his son Aaron was born. Alan traveled as much as possible. Alan made his Dad proud in the Military and graduated cuma sum laude from college. Him and his Dad loved cooking and gardening.. he got to know his young brother when visiting. They grew close. Jimmie loved hunting, fishing and remodeling Vans, Boats, Animal Trailers and Trucks. He was always working on them. Whether it was sand blasting. Painting, rebuilding or just repairing. He loved that. He enjoyed keeping the yard and it was like a perfection thing. Boating and fishing and skiing in his own boat was important to him. He loved to travel and took pride in driving. Camping in a tent he enjoyed and cooking those fish and enjoy. He loved to play his guitar and another instrument he had. On Debeney there was weekly community music playing. Just pull up a chair and enjoy. So many Country Music concerts around Houston. He loved wrestlers on TV and went to many matches at the Coliseum. He loved car destruction durbes and drag racing. A life lived full with two sons he loved and they loved him. Thank God he was given a wife that loved him and grew with him through these last years. Him and his wife shared the Lord daily. He wii be missed by all
