“ So sorry to hear of Jimmie's passing. You could say he and I, Harley Reese were very close friends. We just got lost from each other the last few years. Jimmie and I have been through some great times together, even worked together for years at several construction companies. I met Jimmie in 1973 at Charlie Mills construction company in New Braunfels. I even came to Giddings around August of last year looking for Jimmie, even at La Grange but I just didn't pursue it hard enough, because I just knew Jimmie was going to live forever and I could see him anytime.
