“ Jimmy Baxter was my uncle and known for his quick wit, dry sense of humor and talents. He was helpful to me when I needed advice, let me be his handy apprentice on couple jobs he did, couple houses. I learned great deal from him. I wish he stayed in touch with me after divorcing my aunt, but I understand why he stayed away. He had an interesting laugh, great smile and will be missed. I loved him very much! God be with his family. So long for now uncle Jimmy
