Jo Ann Martha (Mgebrioff) Nelson was born on February 4, 1936 in Clifton, Texas to Rev. Fred and Edna (Lammert) Mgebrioff. She was baptized on April 12, 1936 at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Clifton and confirmed on June 1, 1949 at Our Savior Lutheran Church in College Station, both sacred rights being performed by her father. She graduated from Giddings High School, received her Trained Practical Nurse Certificate from Post Graduate Hospital in Chicago and eventually earned her title of Licensed Baccalaureate Social Worker. Jo Ann was united in marriage to John Clinton "Jack" Hart on August 11, 1953. They had three children, Kay, Steve, and Dean. On March 29, 1968, she married Ronald "Ronnie" Sell. They had one son, Randy. Following Ronnie's death in 1980, Jo Ann married Harley "Wayne" Nelson on December 26, 1981. Together they raised their granddaughter, Sydney beginning when she was two months old. Jo Ann began her career with Combined Community Action in August of 1989. For over 34 years she wore many hats. In March of 2010, her responsibilities were transferred to managing the CPW (Case Management for at-risk youth and pregnant women) Program. Jo Ann aided 1000's of clients during her time at CCA. She oversaw the CPW program for the remainder of her career. During her time at CCA, she received many service awards and was appointed to more committees than we can all remember. All of the state monitoring reports she received were excellent with no findings. She took pride in her work, and it showed. Her personal file is approximately 4" thick with accolades and certificates of achievements. As Deanna Green, Family Services Director said, "What a life of service! She was a typical old school social worker in the best way, always advocating for her clients and looking for new and existing resources." Jo Ann was employed with CCA up until her passing.

Jo Ann passed away during the early morning hours of Sunday, October 22, 2023 at her home in Smithville.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Rev. Fred and Edna Mgebroff; her husbands, Ronnie Sell and Wayne Nelson, and two sons, Steve Hart and Randy Sell.

“ Jo Ann and I lived a few blocks apart in Giddings as kids. We reconnected in the last few years when I moved to the Smithville area. There are two things I learned about Jo Ann. She helped multitudes of people and she deeply loved her family. Rest in peace Jo Ann. The world is a better place because you were in it.

“ Jo Ann was my first cousin. My fondest memories of her was when we visited her family, and I loved her makeup. I was younger, and she let me try some. I have so admired her faith as she experienced some difficult times in her life. I express my sympathy to the family.
