

Joe Gil Revilla

December 31, 1943 - May 8, 2026

Joe Gil Revilla, 82, of Caldwell, was a man who loved the Lord, his family and people deeply. He was born in Milam County to Fernando and Juana Revilla on December 31, 1943.

He married his sweetheart, Guadalupe “Lupe”, on June 24, 1967 and together they shared almost 50 beautiful years of marriage filled with love, laughter and family.

Joe worked for Nagel and Sherman Wire in Caldwell, Texas for many years but his greatest work was the life he built with the people he loved. He served as a Deacon and car attendant at Iglesia De Dios Evangelicas in Cameron, Texas. Later in life, he became a longtime member of God’s House of Victory in Caldwell, Texas, where he loved his church family and lived out his faith.

His favorite verse Psalms 23:1, “The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.”
Jehova es mi pastor: nada me faltara”

Joe never met a stranger. He enjoyed visiting with people around town, waving at everyone he passed, and turning even the quickest errands into long conversations filled with laughter—often while driving through town with his blinker left on for miles without realizing it.

Above all Joe loved his family. He cherished his wife, his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Nothing made him happier than attending reunions and church events surrounded by all his family and friends. He loved Thanksgiving and inviting everyone over to enjoy his wife's food.

He had a gift for making people laugh—whether he was telling kids watermelon seeds would grow in their stomachs, telling about his “days playing for the Dallas Cowboys”, calling everyone on Aprils Fools’ day, pushing people into the pool, or simply being his playful, loving self. If you had confetti eggs, water balloons, or silly string, chances are he was the first to grab one. His family will always remember his familiar—“Ayy!” “I reckon”, “Oh Yeah?”, “Nah” and “Who”?”.

He enjoyed attending church, fixing up his trucks, woodworking, building model cars, collecting coins, drinking coffee daily, doing word searches, watching entertainment wrestling, riding around town, and cheering on the fighting Texas Aggies.

He is preceded in death by his devoted wife, Guadalupe “Lupe” Revilla, his parents Fernando and Juana Revilla, brothers, Mike (Bertha) Revilla, Frank Revilla, Tony Revilla and sisters, Lucia (George) Orozco, Trina Hernandez, and Ester (Noe) Rodriguez.

Joe is survived by his children, Angela (Carlos) Cruz and Robert (Dina) Revilla. He also leaves behind his beloved grandchildren, Crystal (Gauny) Villegas, Amy Cruz, Carley (Larry) Mendez, Farrah (Sergio) Ballesteros, Geniveve (Kolton) Smith, Demerie Revilla, Gianna Revilla, Adalia Revilla, Sarah (Chris) Gonzalez, and Trevor (Vivian) Fehr: and his cherished great grandchildren Lanie, Ariya, Claire, Kehlani, Amari, McKinley, Mason and Liam.

Joe is also survived by brother Gilbert (Mary) Revilla, sisters Anita Saucedo and Christina Sanchez; along with many nieces, nephews and extended family members, church family and friends.

Joe will be remembered not just for what he did but for who he was—a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, friend and a man of faith who loved people well.
