“ I have so very many memories starting from my childhood of Mr. Stockl in my life. He was probably the smartest man I have had the pleasure of meeting & been able to call family. During his life he was blessed to have traveled & worked all over the world giving his family an experience & exposure very few will ever accomplish in their lives. We were neighbors in Houston at one time when I was growing up then they moved out of the country for a while & came back to the same neighborhood. The friendship & family that developed between his family & ours was strong, so strong that when my father retired for health reasons & moved us to Giddings it was not long after they followed. Hans had been to many countries, met many people & had friends & family all over the world. His family chose Giddings to call home & that was the type of person he was, one you could ask any question & he more than likely had an answer. He thrived on knowledge & always had an extensive library of software that intrigued him. I can remember as a kid growing up the best movie nights we ever had were watching their homemade videos from places they lived, pictures and story after story of the different cultures and experiences they had. Hans I picture you now on your final journey & what awaits you on the other side, I believe you were a patient man & now your reward is your reunion in heaven with those you loved when they were here amongst us. May they greet you at the Pearly Gates & take you by the hand to meet our maker! We love you & will miss you! Go with God, be free of pain & fly like an eagle!

“ Mr.Hans was a quiet man, large in stature, large in heart. He was quite the jack of all trades. An excellent mechanic he could repair anything. In years past he seemed happy when he and Mrs Stockl visited with my in-laws Rosie and Jose Lopez. They would play domino's for hours, and you could see that Dad and Hans were good friends just by walking in the room. Mom and Mrs. Anna also were very close and they enjoyed each other very much.

Hans you will be missed by all of us who were blessed to know you. I know he's in Gods arms and is enjoying reuniting with all of his loved ones that went home to the Lord before him. Hans, tell dad hello for me and that I love and miss him and you to enjoy your domino's. May God watch after you all.

ROMANS 8: 38-39 ...for I am persuaded that neither death nor life nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height , nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
