Growing up in Oak Forest, he attended Oak Forest Elementary, Black Middle School and graduated in 1967 from, Waltrip High School and later attended Sam Houston University. Johnny was passionate about baseball and football. He carried the love of the games into coaching his children sports teams for many years. His favorite teams to watch were the New York Yankees, University of Texas Longhorn football program and was an active and dedicated member of the Houston Texans fan organization (regardless of how the seasons turned out). After retiring from Cypress Fairbanks Independent School District in 2010, he retreated to Rockdale in 2014 where he spent his last years with his sweetheart fulfilling his dream to live in the hill country. His only complaint in life would be to not hear the government's confession in the involvement of the JFK assassination....but he "is not Bitter!!!!"

John was a loving husband, father and friend. His family and friends will remember his humor, infectious smile, quick wit and story telling. He will be deeply missed.

Johnny was cremated, and there are no services planned at this time.
