Joseph was born in Merle on February 19, 1936, to Joe Skopik and Josephine (Mader) Skopik. He grew up in the Snook community and attended school in Snook. As a young boy, Joseph worked with his family farming the land. He soon developed a strong work ethic that remained in him throughout his life. Joseph's role in life was to make sure that his loved ones had the essentials and especially enjoyed gathering with the family to enjoy a meal.

After high school, Joseph married Dorothy (Hubenak) Skopik on April 26, 1958. He then enlisted in the U.S. Army and went to basic training. Upon returning home, Joseph and Dorothy had three daughters, Carolyn, Annette, and Melissa. On June 14, 1971, Dorothy unexpectedly passed away from a heart attack.

Joseph later met and married Dorothy (Engleman) Horcica on May 17, 1987. She also had three daughters. Family gatherings grew in size and led to many outdoor family volleyball games. Joseph enjoyed playing even in his pants and boots.

Joseph retired from the Burleson County Precinct 1 in 2011. In his earlier career, he worked for the Bryan Furniture Factory. Joseph then went to work for Texas Thermatic and Siegert Heating and Air Conditioning. As the Oil Boom evolved, Joseph worked as an oil truck driver and then as an oil gauger for Mesa Pipeline. He also was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Caldwell and most recently attended Aldersgate United Methodist Church in College Station.

Joseph was a kind gentleman who never met a stranger. He greeted others with respect, a smile, and usually a "howdy" accompanied by a little hand wave. Joseph enjoyed riding out to the farm to check on the cattle and listen to some good country or Czech polka music along the way. He also enjoyed traveling to Las Vegas and Louisiana, not necessarily to gamble but to meet other people and enjoy the many great buffets.

Joseph's friends and family will greatly miss his stories, anecdotes, opinions, love, and warm smile that he shared with everyone.

Joseph is preceded in death by his wife; Dorothy Hubenak Skopik (mother of Carolyn, Annette, and Melissa), Dorothy Engleman Skopik; parents, Joe and Josephine Skopik; and one step-daughter, Lou Ferguson.
