“ I never knew Joshua but I did have the opportunity to grow up with his Aunt Jacquelyn Richuber. Dearest Joshua what I would like to say is ..your Aunt Jacquelyn loves you so much and she talked about your personality,smile, that twinkle in your eye's, and your cute button nose all the way from Somerville Texas to Austin Texas she made sure that you're name was carried out to far away places. She also has faith that our Father in heaven knew what he was doing when he made you and sent you to earth for your parent's and all your family members and she has faith that he knew what he was doing when he called you back home. Trials and tribulations is what one of many things life puts us through but in the end if you have faith you will come out of the darkness, pain, anger, sadness, and fight your way through when you pull off from the ground and let the boulders fall of your back.... look up to the light and blue sky's let the tears of Jesus wash away your pain, fears , anger,sadness away and stand up to another day with God and Jesus with you hand in hand . With this said I know you're family will get through this time because there faith is strong and if at times they feel that they will loose faith and hope just look at Joshua and tell me that our Father in heaven knew not what he was doing when he made his child and sent him to earth to give to all of you. God is always perfect God is always powerful God is love.

Matthew 19:14

But Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.”

*We love you Joshua you are my brother.

“ I remember the first time I ever held Joshua, I knew from that moment that we were family and I would love him like I love my own brothers.
