After a hard week of chopping cotton during the summer, she rewarded the kids with a picnic and swimming at Jonah River many of their summers. Most evenings were spent playing board and card games, especially Scrabble with her children. When her children were younger, she spent the weekends hanging with either her brother Johnny making funny memories or sister Ruth Ann playing games or her sister Alice just sitting around making small talk. Later in life, Joyce loved to travel with her husband Edward to Shreveport Louisiana and enjoyed playing Mexican Bingo with Edward's family. Joyce loved spending holidays with her children, especially the JJ Pokorny Family Reunion each year.
