

Joycelyn Grace Fudge

November 7, 1929 - October 22, 2023

A graveside service for Joycelyn Grace Fudge, 93 of Lexington, Texas will be held at Germania Cemetery at a later date.

Joycelyn Grace Fudge was born on November 7, 1929 to August Brinkman and Minnie Ahrendt Brinkman in Lexington, Texas. She worked for GTE Phone Company for many years helping to produce the phone book. Joycelyn was part of many different organizations, she was a leader for Girl Scouts for many years and was a foster parent. She cared for her older neighbors while living in Bellaire, and she was known to all as Meemaw. When she wasn't working or helping others, she enjoyed gardening, ranching, hunting, sewing, working on puzzles, and camping. She was a master seamstress and gardener. Joycelyn was a hands-on grandparent and a very supportive Meemaw to all of her family and friends. She also enjoyed reading and was a very self-educated woman. She loved sharing her knowledge and teaching others how to do the things she loved.

Joycelyn passed away on Sunday, October 22, 2023 at her home in Lexington.

She is preceded in death by her parents, August and Minnie Brinkman; her husband Billy Darrell Fudge; and her sister, June Seidl; her brothers Lee Brinkman and Gene Brinkman and her daughter, Grace Collier.

Joycelyn is survived by her son, Michael Stallworth of Cypress; three grandchildren, Vanessa Jackson and husband Jeremy of New Braunfels, Joe Collier of Alvin, and Lee Haizlip and husband Randy of Cypress; six great-grandchildren, Michaela Riggs and husband Jason of Austin, William Jackson of New Braunfels, Alyssa Collier of Savannah, Georgia; Marcus Haizlip of Austin; Taylor Haizlip of Cypress; Michael Haizlip of Cypress and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family.

Memorials may be made to the Girl Scouts of America.

Arrangements made by Phillips and Luckey Funeral Home in Giddings.
