“ JT was so much fun and quite a character in school. He always brought a smile to my face. He was quite an athlete and ran track. JT rarely practiced because of having to help at the ranch but at the meets he was very hard to beat. He and Francie hold a special place in my heart of our childhood. May God grant peace and comfort to the family.

“ In the early 70's J.T. and I along with two others found ourselves at a "Stonewall Jackson" concert, just outside of College Station, TX. After the event we stopped at a place to get a bite to eat. It was very busy and people were waiting to be seated. We were waiting at our table, when these two guys came in and were holding sacks from a nearby "Hamburger" Place. They were seated and told the Waitress that they just needed drinks. Now this bothered all of us, but J.T. took it to the next level. He called that Waitress over and told her, "Those two brought their own hamburgers in, and only ordered Drinks and you have a dozen or so people waiting to be seated? Well, Bless Her Heart, she said that she had to serve them and J.T. got a little more into the "Cause". There just happen to be two Highway Patrolmen in there and to cut this story short a little bit, we all made a trip to the local "Cop Shop" (Could not have asked for two nicer people (Highway Patrolmen). After paying a Fine, we were on our way back to Rockdale. Then just as we got close to the "City Limits", Red Lights and a Siren made us pull up in a closed businesses Parking Lot. This time it was City Cops and they had to be kinfolk of "Barney" and "Gomer", and when we were giving our driver license to them, Barney or Gomer, I forget which, ask "J.T." what was his Name. So he repeated what was on his drivers license. (Which was J.T.), But that wasn't good enough for those two, and they asked once more and J.T. then turned up the voice volume and told them once again, "J Period, T. Period !!!". "Get In, Get In", you two drive that one and you two in the Patrol Car." . . . . .
.. Thank You J.T. Herring for a GREAT night, and many more.
Always loved being around you and Francie.

“ I loved Mr. Herring so much. He was always cheerful and liked to cut up with us. One of my memories of Him was my 18th birthday. He broke the law but I enjoyed my gift from him. Always a friendly face and never met a stranger. Every time he saw me around town he would say " Hey Kiddo", even after I was grown. All my love and prayers to his girls and grand kids, I know he loved y'all very much! He has no pain no more! God bless!!!
