Julia Faye (Pearce) Stifflemire was born on September 23, 1929 in Houston, Texas, the only child of James Franklin Pearce and Evelyn (Purcell) Pearce. She grew up in Houston and graduated from Jefferson Davis High School in Houston before attending Abilene Christian College. Julia was united in marriage to Herman Estil Stifflemire on June 25, 1950 in Houston, Texas. She was a loving and devoted homemaker who raised their four children. Julia was an active and faithful member of the Giddings Church of Christ for many years before transferring her membership to the Lexington Church of Christ where she was currently a member. She was a talented painter and several of her paintings hang on the walls in local banks and businesses. Julia also enjoyed working in her flowerbeds and singing. She was a member of the annual Lexington Singing Christmas Tree for many years. Most of all, Julia loved her family and cherished the time she spent with them.

Julia passed away the morning of Monday, October 17, 2022 at her home in Lexington.

She was preceded in death by her parents, James & Evelyn Pearce; her daughter and son-in-law, Shirley & Gary Rotola; her son, Wendell Stifflemire, and her great grandson, Blake Harless.

Julia is survived by her husband of 72 years, Herman "H.E." Stifflemire of Lexington; her daughter, Deborah Winne of Lexington; her son, James Stifflemire & his wife, Ann of Lexington; four grandchildren, Ty Harless & his wife, Renee of Bridgeport, Stephanie Mahaney & her husband, Justin of Brimfield, MA, Ana Gleesing & her husband, Andy of Dallas, and Jeffery Scott Jones & his wife, Ashley of North Carolina, and five great grandchildren, Aaron Mahaney, Jake Harless, Brandon Harless, Abby Jones, and Addy Jones.

Memorials may be made to Embrace Hospice or to the charity of one's choice.
