“ My deepest condolences for the Ramaley Family.

Kacey's passing was so suddenly shocking. God Bless her, she was a wonderful person and taken from us too soon.

Prayers for my friend Aaron during this time and the fine young men that they have raised together and beautiful little girl.

Through it all, it was nice to see the family and the photos of Kacey and her life at the visitation. Stay strong. We love you guys.

*Sincerely,
The Comers*

“ My sincere condolences to Aaron and the kids, Her sister and Dad and the rest of her family. Also, to all of her special family who have been so close to her for most of their lives. She will be missed by so many for her joyful personality and giving nature. I wish circumstances made it possible for more of us to gather to help celebrate her life but 2020 has been bad for us all in so many ways. Love to you all.

“ Dear Family, I had the privilege of being Kacey's 5th grade teacher in 1991-92. (I also taught her sister Jeri two years later). What a sweet, kind girl. I can still remember Kacey's beautiful smile and bubbly personality. My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family.

“ Kacey Gilbreath who turned into Ramaley. Where do I even began? I remember my first day of Freshman year. Right in front of me sat this girl with the most beautiful smile. Who, within a minute of me taking my seat, turned to me with them big gorgeous blue eyes and introduced herself with a nervous but infectious giggle. We were both 80s babies, so we were both still 14 going to be 15 soon. Anyhow, that's where it began for you and I. I will never regret a moment of having met you. You've been the best friend, sister in Christ, my shoulder, my complete everything when I just couldn't do it. But you always knew it was going to be alright. I will cherish our memories and tell your kids stories about their wonderful amazing mother. I love you always and forever my sweet, beautiful friend.

“ Where do I even begin sister. You were an amazing sister, friend, mother and wife. I thank God he brought you into my life 24 plus years ago. You have been with me through thick and thin. I will always cherish the memories we made together. I will miss you so much. Fly high my best friend. I love and miss you already. Aaron, Jeri and Larry I love each and everyone of y'all and the kiddos. Know I will still be by y'all's side from here until it's our times.
