Kerry Dale Lehmann was born on September 20, 1958 in Giddings, Texas to Edward Adolph Lehmann and Marilyn (Weishuhn) Lehmann. He was baptized at Martin Luther Lutheran Church in Carmine on November 9, 1958 and confirmed also at Martin Luther Lutheran Church in Carmine on June 2, 1974 by Rev. Hilmer Krause. His confirmation verse was Hebrews 12:14 "Make every effort to live in peace with all men and to be holy; without holiness no one will see the Lord". Kerry graduated from TSTC with an associates degree in mechanics. After graduating Kerry opened his own mechanic shop called Highway 290 Mechanic Shop where he worked for several years. He then closed his mechanic shop to work on the family dairy farm for some time before joining the team at Blue Bell. After working for Blue Bell, Kerry found his way into the oilfield where he worked until he found his way back to the ranch and loved everything that came with it.

On July 18, 2015, he was united in marriage to Valerie Pinkerton. He had two children, Nicholas, Tabatha, and three stepchildren Tanya, Georgia, and Katrina. Kerry was an active member of the Sandtown Wildlife Association. He enjoyed Bar-B-Que and participating in cookoffs, welding, playing with his dogs, and riding around on his John Deere Gator. Kerry was always ready to host family events and enjoyed any visits with family. He was known for his custom hay bailing and tinkering with all kinds of things. Kerry's family nicknamed him MacGyver due to his ability to make all sorts of fun things out of stuff he had just laying around. He will be remembered for teaching his grandkids about the farming life and always willing to spend time with his family.

Kerry passed away the afternoon of December 28, 2022 at his home in Carmine.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Edward and Marilyn Lehmann.
