“ My father was the best father a man could possibly ever have...he taught me the basics of life, in faith, work, morals, gardening, family, fishing, hunting, outdoors, dominoes, and love of life. He never slowed down either, and lived life to it's fullest even to the end, continuing to make plans for the future with James and myself, to plant tomatoes and potatoes in October, the last month of his life. he never quit and wouldn't allow us to quit either. He had so much energy...i will miss his love of life and his initiative. I loved him...God bless you Dad.
