

Leroy Clifford Frosch

June 22, 1928 - November 25, 2008

Leroy Frosch went home to The Lord at 3:00 a.m. on Tuesday, November 25th after a long illness. He was born in Paige, Texas on June 22, 1928 to Herbert & Lena (Winkler) Frosch. He was confirmed into the Lutheran Church on April 6, 1941 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Fedor. He served his country in the United States Air Force from 1947 to 1953 and attained the rank of Tech Sergeant. He was married to Gladys Boriack in Lincoln, Tx on June 10, 1950. Upon leaving the Air Force, he went to work for Air-Co and then for Union Carbide in Houston, Texas as a truck driver. He retired from Union Carbide in 1979. In 1980 he moved to Lincoln to help out on his father-in-law's farm. Finding time on his hands, he went to work again, this time for Koch Oil driving oil tankers. He retired from Koch in 1992. The students of St. John Lutheran School will remember him fondly as their bus driver for 7 years starting in 1998. He lived on his farm in Lincoln until his passing. He was a current member of St. John Lutheran Church in Lincoln and his service to the church as a member of the Men's Club and many other duties will be missed. He also volunteered with as many as three different groups that helped out with braille for the blind. He is survived by his wife, Gladys; sons, Rodney, Bryan, Kenneth and Dana Frosch; daughters, Cindy Estes and Terisa Frosch; grandson, Adam Estes; granddaughters, Teri Champlin, Jennifer Frosch and Anna Frosch; 4 great grandchildren, Bailey and Paige Champlin, Samantha Frosch and Kylie King; 11 brothers and sisters and many more nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Herbert & Lena Frosch;

an infant brother and his son, Paul Herbert Frosch. Leroy "Bumpa" Frosch will be missed by all who knew him. He was a loving husband, father and brother who served his family and church. Memorials may be made to St. John Lutheran Church in Lincoln, Texas or the Lutheran Braille Workers.
