“ Its hard to imagine losing one parent, much less both parents in such a short span apart from one another. But I remember Lillian say, that they were not apart from one another very long in all the years of marriage. So it seems fitting, that she would not of been far behind him. I am deeply sorrowed by her loss, you are all in our thoughts and prayers and we are not far if ever you need someone to talk to. God Bless and keep you, may he lay his loving arms on you and comfort you and heal your pain. May he give you joy, that our beloved sister is with him and Billy and that we shall see her again soon. She had such a beautiful smile and voice, I remember her kindness and will cherish all the time I got with her, although brief. Your all in my prayers!

“ It's hard to believe that in a little over six-weeks I have lost two of the best neighbors I ever had.

My sincerest condolences to Billy and Gary and their families at the loss of your mom. Thank you for sharing parents. I'll miss the lamp in the window.
