

Linda Carol Carter

April 2, 1944 - February 25, 2009

Linda Carol (Walker) Carter was the only child born to very proud parents Fred (Shorty) and Gladys (Smith) Walker on April 2, 1944 in Bastrop County, Texas. She grew up in Victoria, Texas and after graduating from Victoria High School in 1962 she moved to Austin, Texas to attend Nixon Clay Business School. The following year she met Leslie Carter when they were both in the same wedding party. They were married a year later in July of 1964 in Victoria. The birth of their first child came in September of 1965 and was followed by four other children over the next ten years. The couple settled in Elgin, Texas where they pastored Coon Neck Community Church followed by a move to pastor a church in Mansfield, Texas. The couple divorced in 1982 and Carol and their children returned to the Lexington area. She eventually settled in Blue where she lived for the past 12 years. Carol was a member of Adina Christian Church where she played the piano for several years. She worked for Clayton Williams in Giddings before being hired by the state. For the last 20 years she worked for the Texas Department of Transportation in Austin and retired in October of 2008. Carol passed away suddenly in her home on Wednesday, February 25, 2009. She was 64 years, 10 months and 23 days old. She was preceded in death by her parents and an infant daughter. She is survived by her daughter, Dana Lott & husband Laren; sons, Darren Carter, Kevin Carter & wife Shawnde, Clay Carter & wife Katy; son-in-law, Jim R. Stamport; grandchildren, Candice, Clint and Colby Stamport, Sydney & Bryer Carter and Avery & Zack Carter all of Lexington. Carol loved to read and enjoyed southern gospel music. She adored the Gaither homecoming crew and was able to see them in concert several times. She enjoyed jig saw puzzles, crocheting and recently could be seen printing pictures taken with her new computer from her fancy lap top. Carol loved her family and with the birth of her first grandchild in 1983 she felt she was too "cool" to be a grandma and that "Nanny" suited her style. Nanny could always be counted on to help you rearrange your furniture, cook her famous fried chicken or drive you somewhere "really" fast. She will be greatly missed by all who loved her. Visitation will be held on Friday, February 27, 2009 from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Lexington, Texas. Graveside services will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 28, 2009 at Hobbs Family Cemetery in Lexington, Texas.

Tribute Wall

“ Linda Carol Carter

Stephanie White - February 26, 2009 at 10:26 PM

“ Linda Carol Carter

Karen McClendon - February 26, 2009 at 08:37 PM