“ There are no words that can explain my Aunt. She took over the lives of 3 kids when their mother needed her help. Especially, a young dumb tom boy. Oh how hard she tried to make a young lady out of me, but when she saw that was impossible, she NEVER not loved me . Aunt Linda, thank you for all the life’s lessons you taught me. And Thursday nights,the best night of the week.

“ Gosh I have so many. I would go with my mom over to Linda's and she and my mom would think of a question or thought and would bring out books to look up the answer they were seeking. I remeber helping them get the books and looking for the answer of the question of the week they wanted to know.
