“ Thinking of you during these difficult times. You will be missed more than words can describe, I will miss our long conversations, your laughter and your kindness. I will never forget when you called me “ your new daughter” It’s seems hard to believe you are gone from this earth but I do know you will still be around watching over your son Jason and family. What an amazing person this world has lost you will forever remain in our hearts. Miss you Maui momma.

“ Every morning I still wake up with tears and disbelief. And daily I'm reminded of this quote from Kahlil Gibran's The Profit:

"When you are sorrowful look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight."

Tomorrow at dawn, I will be breaking ground and planting the first flowers for a living memorial garden and sanctuary, dedicated to my family "For the Love of Lees" (Linda Lee, John Lee & Austin Lee). The garden will feature flowers that represent them and painted poetry/quotes written its big boulders.

On the morning of Linda's birthday, January 14, 2024, a dedication ceremony to Linda, will take place. All are welcome to join us in DeLuz/Fallbrook, CA, then. There is plenty of camping space, for anyone traveling, also.

Linda's spirit is strong and remains in my heart, along with John. I love them both dearly and know that she feels it, too. Love is the ONLY thing we get to take with us when we pass...nothing else...just what's always been most important.

“ Linda was 4 years older than me. She was always sweet to me and she was a lot of fun to be around. I regret not staying in touch with her. I am glad we were able to reconnect last year. Thank you

“ I was Blessed to call Linda my aunt. I have many fond memories growing up visiting her house playing with my cousins Jc and Punky. She always cooked great food and was always very kind and hospitable to me. I remember she used to cut my hair when she had her own hair salon in Conroe. I was sad to see her go when she moved to California and eventually to Hawaii but I know she was most happy there and enjoyed her life living in paradise. Love you Aunt Linda ❤️
