“ Linda was a very special kind of friend and member of our family. We all welcomed her immediately when she and Bill married. She fitted in perfectly with our loud, happy, rambucious family. My Papa and Mama loved her and her parents right away. She did a lot of fishing down at the big tank, always so happy over every fish she caught. Linda was hard working, canning and perserving all the awesome vegetables she and Bill raised in their garden. She was a good cook, and would take recipes from relatives and friends and perfect them to her families taste. The grand kids loved her famous sugar cookies and brownies. She loved to party and dance, she and Willard Bush cut a rug many times. She and Bill combined their two families into one big happy family. They hardly ever came over without a niece, nephew, or grand child with them. She had her grandkids and Great grand kids close to her all the time. We were there to see her the day before she passed and as always, the place was noisy with family. When she heard her great grandsons in the adjoining room cutting up, a smile came across her face. She was so caring, taking care of her mother when she could no longer take care of herself, until her Mother passed away. We ALL loved you, Linda, and will miss you.

“ Linda was one of the sweetest and strongest people I ever met. She was there for me when my mother was battling cancer and Linda was fighting it also. She was there for me when I found out my great-grandson had leukemia. She was there for me when I laughed and when I cried. I was there for her anytime she needed me to be and she knew it. She was a much loved friend and I will miss her. Beautiful lady, rest in peace with God.
