“ I was able to work with Lisa when she and I served together on the PTO board. She was President, and she knew how to run a meeting like a well-oiled machine! She never wasted anyone's time with unnecessary banter; she was professional yet personable and always fun to be around. Throughout the years, I knew her to be a woman who got things done and did it well. I really admired that about her.

The main thing I will always remember about Lisa was her great personal style. She knew how to put an outfit together better than any woman I know. Every time I saw her I thought, "ooh, I love that" or "...wish I could wear that" etc. She truly was was my fashion hero.

I am saddened by her loss. Please accept my condolences!
