The family will be present for visitation Friday from 2:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. In memory of Logan, the family asks everyone to wear a shade of blue to the service.

Logan Robert Broyles was born in Victoria, Texas on April 22, 2021, early in the morning, and eager to be here to spread his love and the love of Jesus. Now he will continue to do so in spirit. Logan's mommy and daddy always reminded him that God made him special and loved him very much. He knew Jesus and knew Jesus loved him, for the Bible told him so. His favorite book was his Bible book, and to Logan, it was his daddy's job to read it. Thursday night Logan chose the story "Jesus loves the little Children". He took his Bible book everywhere with him and he started spreading the word as soon as he could. He drew crosses in the sand, made crosses from play-doh, he always showed us crosses in the trees, and would even eat his breakfast and make a cross out of it.

Our Logan bear loved being outside, swinging high, running naked in the rain, being shoeless, animals, and the beach as he always wanted to go. All he knew was love and he had the biggest heart made of gold and the sweetest voice along with the sweetest personality. Logan made his family full of light and laughter there was NEVER a dull moment when he was around. Logan had such a strong presence and gave out the sweetest, biggest hugs & kisses. He was always so gentle and loving towards HIS "Banksie girl" and crazy about his bubba Jake as he looked up to him. He was crazy about his birthday and could never understand why any day just couldn't be his birthday. He will be forever our strong willed, resilient baby with a big job in Heaven.

Logan did all the Lord asked of him here and it was his time to start his life and duties in heaven. Jesus Christ took Logan by the hand and led him to the Father on Friday, September 13th, 2024. How blessed we were to know such a soft hearted, compassionate, Jesus loving child of God. He will continue to touch our lives in ways we can't imagine. And let today and everyday be a reminder to live in the moment and truly set your eyes on heavenly things.

With open arms and warm smiles, he was greeted in Heaven by his great grandfathers, Joe Benignus and Jerry Kadlubar and his great grandparents, Merlene Kadlubar and George Sr. and Silvia Broyles.

Logan leaves behind to look forward to being reunited with him in heaven, his parents, Trey & Natalie Broyles of Dime Box; his brother and sister, Jake Broyles and Banks Broyles both of Dime Box; his grandparents, Mitzi & Tony of Poth, Skip & Rosemary Broyles of San Antonio, and Paula Kadlubar of Giddings; his great grandparents, Janette Benignus of Dime Box and Gladys and Bobby Billimek of Poth; aunts and uncles, Tara & Chase Hubbard of Poth, Robert Broyles of Colorado, Mary Hall of Colorado, Kaylee Pollok and Lance of Bastrop, and Amanda Kadlubar and Caleb Boriack of Caldwell, Lance and Kayle Volner of Poth, and great aunts and uncle, Betty Rheman of Waller, Jan and Doug Christiansen of Giddings.

Pallbearers will be Luke Benignus, Caleb Boriack, Matthew Welch and Derek Dane.

Logan's family requests that memorials be made to Holy Family Catholic Church in Lexington, First Baptist Church in Giddings or the Cal Farley's Boys Ranch.

Gift from God

You were a gift from God sent to Earth side.

Who knew his gifts had a timeline?

It felt like we would have you forever, but God's plan is to never be severed.

You were never ours from the beginning and to comprehend that is so head spinning.

We can rejoice in praise and love knowing what my God sent us from above.

Three years will never feel like enough.

But God says our lives are like a break of a wave.

So even if we had you here for 100 years, eternity can't compare for what our God promises us when we get there.

We'll be with you in a place of peace, no boo-boos, tears, or nightmares - mommy & daddy will always get to be there.

To hold you tight and swing you high.

We'll have you all the days of our life.

“ Heavenly Father, stretch Your mighty hand down from Heaven & touch this precious family. Wrap them tightly in Your loving arms & bring them peace like only You can, the kind of peace that passes all understanding. Grant them this today, tomorrow & all the coming days. Help them Father to always remember that we who are heavy laden, if we come before You, You will give us rest. Piece by piece, put their hearts back together again, & grant them the strength to overcome their sadness & devastation. We know You are a present help, & You are right there with them in this very moment comforting them & holding them. Let them feel Your presence God & touch them in their most broken place & bring them the peace that they so desperately need right now. In Jesus' name, amen.
