Lois MacKechnie was born in San Antonio, TX on October 17, 1932. She married John Hyatt and after living in Missouri for a number of years they brought their three sons back to Texas and settled in Hitchcock. After retiring from Sears & Roebuck, she continued to dedicate her life to her family and community. She was known for her kindness, her generosity, and her dedication to the Methodist Church. Her passion for sewing earned her a reputation for being an accomplished seamstress. Lois lived in Hitchcock until 2011, when she moved to Somerville to spend these last years happily sitting on her porch enjoying the Texas country life watching the deer walk by with her beloved dog at her feet. Lois is survived by her three sons and their wives, David and Elaine Hyatt of Spring, Carl and Kathy Hyatt of Somerville, Paul and Karen Hyatt of Hitchcock, 9 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren, 5 nephews, and 1 niece. She was adored by all. Heartfelt gratitude goes out to Brazos Valley Hospice, especially Lela, and all the nurses and doctors involved with Lois's care. She was a beautiful, strong, and respected lady and will be missed, but forever held in our hearts. Family is requesting that donations be made to Hospice Brazos Valley, www.hospicebrazosvalley.org.
