Lonnie Lee "Bubba" Crenshaw Sr., 61, of Bryan, TX passed away on Sunday, March 12, 2017. Graveside services will be held at 2 pm on Saturday, March 18, 2017 at Peach Creek Cemetery. Funeral services have been entrusted to Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home Caldwell, TX.

Lonnie Lee Crenshaw was born on April 26, 1955 in San Angelo, TX to his parents Delmar C. and Elsie (Kelly) Crenshaw. Lonnie or Bubba, as most knew him, was a very active person always on the go. He was a lifelong Truck Driver and worked for many different companies as a private contractor and he was famous for his sayings like "55 to stay alive". Bubba also enjoyed hauling Junk, "one man's junk is another man's glory". He also worked at Gooseneck and GSI Oil & Gas, Bubba enjoyed being around people. He was known for his personality and starting up conversations with total strangers at his favorite hang outs, like the Dixie Tire Co. or Ed's Butcher Block.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Delmar and Elsie (Kelly) Crenshaw; two brothers, Donnie and Johnnie Crenshaw; a sister, Marie Crenshaw Barker; and two nieces, Elsie Michelle Kearns and Little Dee.

He is survived by two sons, Lonnie Crenshaw and Kotie Crenshaw; three brothers, Dale Wayne Crenshaw, Ronnie Crenshaw, and Paul Joseph Crenshaw; a sister, Molly Ann Crenshaw; a brother-in-law, Jeffery Barker; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers are Joe Sims, Christopher Crawford, Ronnie Crenshaw, Jimmy Schulz, John Gorras, and Brad Wade.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests making a donation to 'U. S. Renal Dialysis, 1612 N. Texas Ave., Bryan, Texas 77803.
