June 11, 1963 - December 25, 2019

Lori Lynne Faulkner, 56, was called to her eternal resting place on Wednesday, December 25, 2019 in Round Rock, Texas. She was born June 11, 1963 in Lubbock, Texas to Larry and Marilyn Jean Faulkner.

Lori graduated from Levelland High School in 1981, and continued her studies at a business college in Lubbock. She loved to travel, and did so extensively in her earlier years. She spent a period of time in Dallas, before eventually settling in Rockdale, to enjoy living near her family. She was preceded in death by her brother, Larry Wayne Faulkner.

Those left to cherish her memories are her parents, Larry and Marilyn Jean Faulkner of Rockdale, Texas; brother, Jim and wife Robin Faulkner of Rockdale, Texas; nephews, Lincoln Faulkner and wife Natasha of Prosper, Texas, Sterling Faulkner and wife Melanie of The Woodlands, Texas, John Faulkner and wife Ruth of Artesia, New Mexico, James Faulkner and wife Elizabeth of Fountain, Colorado, and Mathew Faulkner of Orlando, Florida; faithful companion and caretaker, Julia Christina Williams of Rockdale, Texas; along with many loving friends and neighbors who will miss her dearly.

There will be a Funeral Service at 2 PM on Friday, January 3, 2020 at Phillips and Lucky Funeral Home, 1041 US Highway 79, Rockdale, Texas 76567 with O. E. “ Lori decided that we, her Bit and I should go to Bryan one night and "show the wanna be cowboy Aggies how to dance"! So we loaded up in the party van with our Miller lite, plastic cups and rainbow straws and headed to Bryan.

Lori dances with every little shit kicker in the bar. But this one little dude decided he wanted her all to himself. So, Lori told him, make sure my girls drinks run dry and you can go to breakfast with me! He agreed and he stayed at our table all night! He walked her to the van when we left, she shook his hand and thanked him for the evening. Then she put her arms around Bit and I and said, "let's go home girls, these Aggies will never learn".

He tried to keep up but the old party van was too much. We laughed all the way home about all his "bullrider, ladies man stories". Later Lori told me she had left a $100 bill for his tab the next time he went dancing. And a note tellin him that we had a good time and thanks! Even when she was bad, she was a good, caring and sweet lady. I will never ever forget her.

Christy, call me some time. I'd love to sit in the yard and enjoy all the beautiful flowers along with the memories!
