

Margaret Havel

March 24, 1925 - May 8, 2020

Margaret Havel, 95, of Bryan, died on Friday, May 8, 2020 at the Legacy Nursing Home in Bryan. She was born on March 24, 1925 to Andy Merdock and Sara (Huddleston) Jones in Eustance, Texas.

On May 31, 1944, she married Jerry W. "Jack" Havel in Athens, Texas. They shared 49 years together until his death on October 16, 1993. She worked as a secretary at Dow Chemical for 20 years. She had lived in Corpus Christi and Lake Jackson before moving to Rockdale in 1983, for the last few years she has lived in Bryan.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Andy and Sara Jones; husband, Jack Havel; sister, Vivian Drennan; and son-in-law, Charles Caffey.

Margaret is survived by her daughter, Neva Jack Caffey of Bryan; grandchildren, Kevin Caffey and C.D. Caffey; and great grandchildren, Colton, Austin, Brandi, Jackson, Slaton, and Vivian.

A private family service will be held at a later date.