

Margaret Faye Jackson

November 7, 1936 - November 7, 2018

Margaret Faye Jackson, 82, of Spring, passed away on her birthday at home surrounded by family. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, November 14, at 10 am in the Phillips and Luckey Funeral Home in Caldwell, with Pastor Delbert Price as officiant. Burial will follow at Chriesman Cemetery.

Margaret Faye Daniels was born on November 7, 1936 in Dilley, TX to Keaton and Katie (McDonald) Daniels. She was a Barber for over 50 years in Pasadena and Porter. On August 10, 1957 Margaret married the love of her life, Jay Jackson. Margaret enjoyed spending time with her family, sisters, nieces, nephews, children and grandchildren. When the holidays would arrive, they would all converge on their parent's family farm in Caldwell. Many great memories were made there that will last for generations. She was also an avid football fan, cheering for her hometown Oilers and then later the Houston Texans, and would make sure to watch every game. She was a loyal supporter of her son's high school football teams that he coached throughout his career, traveling the state to watch his teams compete. Later in life her grandchildren dominated her time and thoughts, especially her grandson Jericho, who she referred to as her # 1 boy and Mariah, who she loved to watch play basketball. When Maverick arrived her last 18 months were filled with helping to care for her youngest grandson.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Keaton and Katie Daniels; her four sisters, Gracie Scott, Joyce Gentry, Bobbie Wood, and Catherine Kocian; her husband of 61 years, Jay B. Jackson; nephew, Johnny Blau; niece, Donna

Gentry; and niece, Denise Blau.

Margaret is survived by her son, Michael Jay Jackson and wife Tracey Ann Jackson; three grandchildren, Mariah Faith Jackson, Jericho Ray Jackson and Maverick Jay Jackson; and nieces and nephews, Debbie Jackson, David Blau, Danny Chambers, Neal Gentry, Joey Kocian, Keaton Scott, Deborah Touchy, Donna Donnell & Laurie Fichtner.

“ Margaret was the mother of one of my students when I was the principal of King JH. She was a very supportive parent and became a good friend. I would drive to Pasadena to get a haircut every once in awhile just to chat. I know she loved her son, Mike, and wanted the best for him. Mike turned out okay and we are still good friends today. She will be missed
