“ Marilyn will forever be in my heart. There are not enough words to convey what a loss this is to her family, and the many people whose lives she touched. She was truly the kindest, most giving, caring person I've ever met. As we worked together for many years, I came to know her well, and to love her. My condolences to her family, and wishes for peace, which I know she has now found. Sending my love to all the family, and keeping you all in my prayers. All my love, Pam.
