“ Marilyn and my mom were best friends. I grew up knowing her, she had a smile that would melt your heart. When we lived on Horn Rd. we always went to the Orsaks to visit on Christmas Eve. Like clock work my dad and Archie had to go get a beer. Then they went to our house to play Santa! She will always have a place in my heart.

“ She was my Granny. She practically raised me because my parents were working. She made the best canned pickles in the world. When we sat down to eat lunch, she would have me go grab some onions out of the garden so we could eat them with lunch. I used to tease her back in the day, because in my little 7 year old mind, she reminded me of Edith Bunker, and she would just laugh that sweet, sweet laugh of hers. She was my second mom when I was little, and I couldn't love someone more. She and pawpaw Archie always took us to Rockdale, and I gladly went. I remember staying with them in Grandma Dreher's house. I remember going to Aunt Johnnie's and seeing all her canned food. Almost everything from my childhood involved Granny. I am broken, and I hope she is happy wherever she is and is with pawpaw.
