“ Sister Margie was an outstanding example of Christian humility. When talking about plans in the making, or some particular matter of conversation, she often prefaced or ended her remarks with: "With the help of our Heavenly Father." That was Margie. Like her mother, Granny Taylor, she was completely unpretentious, Holy spiritual, a Christian in her whole person. It would be a shame for her goodness to be soon forgotten. She and brother Freeman were special people to so many of us. Elaine and I (and others here at Mullin) loved them both immensely. May God bless the family and the church in this great loss. And it is with confidence beyond the usual that we would add, "Her passing is heaven's gain." –Jerry and Elaine

“ Dan and I have been privileged to know Sister Marjorie for many years. Her love of God and of family has been well renowned. If anyone talked to her for just a few minutes they would know she was a Christian. All her family are in our prayers for your consolation

“ The thing I most remember about her was her spending time talking to her little grandkids (they were all little back then, and she talked to them about the Bible.) I never forgot this. We were staying overnite with Burl and Eileen and so were they. 💕
