The family will be present for visitation Monday evening from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.

Marlene Spacek was born on June 20, 1936 in Beukiss (Lee County) to Ray and Elva (Tisdale) Dodd. She married George Spacek on June 26, 1954. She was a faithful member of the church of Christ and a devoted Christian wife, mother, sister, friend, aunt, and Mamaw. She instilled a love for God in her children and grandchildren. Marlene loved sewing, baking, and cooking. She also loved sitting in her back yard drinking coffee while listening to the birds, and she loved gardening. She had a fascination with houses and loved to go look at the ones her children and grandchildren own, and she loved any old houses. Even with their own house, she always “redesigned” by moving furniture around - mostly by herself; she was a very strong woman. She is known in Lee County for her “famous” tea ring. Anyone who frequented Marlene’s Beans -n- Things in downtown Dime Box can attest to her cooking skills. She loved being able to see and hold every new baby added to her ever growing family. She even “had” to help name a few of the new babies. She worked in the Giddings public school system for many years, helping in the special education department. She was a Mary Kay consultant for a few years, and even went on a cruise with the income from her sales. She also worked at Invader Boats for a time, but most of all, she was a homemaker. Her family was her life, and she will be remembered as a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great grandmother.

Marlene passed away the morning of Monday, October 18, 2021 at Bec's Blessing in Giddings.

She is preceded in death by her husband, George; her parents, Ray and Elva Dodd, and two brothers, Malcolm "Sonny" Dodd and Marvin "Bo" Dodd.

Marlene is survived by her six children, Ricky & Melanie Spacek of Georgetown, Rocky & Darlene Spacek of Dime Box, Rusty & Sherry Spacek of Dime Box, Robyn & John Brockenbush of Lexington, Rebecca & Ray Hooks of Ledbetter, and Ronica & Russell Iselt of Lexington; twenty one grandchildren, Shawn & Karra Spacek of Burton, Shana Kaye & Wayne Jones of San Marcos, Seth & Amber Spacek of Kentucky, Sloan & Kara Spacek of Georgetown, Amber & Adam Nietzsche of Giddings, Autumn Spacek of Houston, Alesha Spacek of Idaho, Adyson Spacek of San Marcos, Kyle & Cassie Spacek of Roanoke, Keith & Logan Spacek of Colleyville, Kamden Spacek of Whitney, Ryan & Brittney Brockenbush of Lexington, Phil & Amber Brockenbush of Lexington, Raegan & Todd Fritsch of Fayetteville, Tori & Antwan Harris of Killeen, Landon Langley of Ledbetter, Jade Langley of Ledbetter, Sierra & Daniel Green of Lexington, Casey & Haley Iselt of Lexington, Katelyn Iselt of College Station, and Marla Iselt of College Station; forty one great grandchildren; one great great grandchild; five sisters, LaRue Jones of Wimberley, Elizabeth Auippa of Tomball, Linda Bradberry of Ledbetter, Kathy Turner of Trinity, and Deborah Stearns of Bryan, and one brother, Howard "Bud" Dodd of California.

Once in every ones life when they are going through devastating life changing event a very wise soul, MARLENE, propelled me to see life as it is and changed my life to help me become who I am today. Who knows where and what I would be without her....she saved me!

Such wonderful memories of Mrs. Emma. I was in the same class with Debbie Dodd.

*Would love to hear from her.
So tall and strikingly beautiful!*

“ To Rebecca & all the family,
My sincerest condolences on the passing of your loved one; a mom, grandmother on several levels, a sister, friend & no doubt, a Christian member in our community. The good-byes are not such as you know it - just temporary. She & your dad are now waiting to be reunited with all their family someday. What a bittersweet moment it is in losing those we love but we know they are only borrowed to us for their time on earth. Rebecca, so many times I saw your mother's eyes as you cared for my mom & all your residents. You are living what she taught you as you care for, love & protect those sweet folks at Bec's Blessing. My heart broke as I heard of your loss but as I know from my own mom leaving this earth, your mama loved every minute she had here as it shows from all her experiences & through her family. Your faith will keep you strong as you meet the daily challenges of her absence but knowing she & your dad are together again, can be such comforting thought. God is with you.
