

Mary Dailey Krenek

October 23, 1937 - November 23, 2015

Memorial services for Mary Dailey Krenek, 78 of Dime Box, Texas, are scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, December 2, 2015 at the Dime Box Brethren Church in Dime Box with Rev. Jim Heckman officiating. A private family committal service will be held in the Hranice Cemetery at a later date.

Mary Jean (Day) Krenek was born on October 23, 1937 in Athens, Texas, the daughter of Jean Levin Day and Mary John (Patterson) Day. She was united in marriage to Charles Dailey and they had two children, Mary "Missy" & Joe. Following Charles death, she married John Edward Krenek on October 4, 1987. Mary owned and operated Dailey's Liquor Store in Dime Box for several years. She was a member of the Dime Box Brethren Church and enjoyed gardening, cooking and looking after her cattle. She will be remembered as a caring individual who was always willing to take care of others. Mary passed away the evening of Monday, November 23, 2015 at Scott & White Memorial Hospital in Temple.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Jean & Mary Day; both of her husbands, Charles Dailey and John Krenek; her son-in-law, Joe Strom; two brothers, Bill Day & Jean Day; two sisters-in-law, Anne Day and Gardina Kamrath and three brothers-in-law, Edward Krenek, Karl Kamrath and Michael Buchan.

Mary is survived by two children, Mary "Missy" Strom of Dime Box and Joe Dailey & his wife Tracy of Austin; three grandchildren, Kristine Strom of Houston, Casey Strom of College Station and Charles Dailey of Austin; two sisters-in-law, Malinda Bartholomew of Victoria and Theresa Buchan of Dime Box as well as several nieces and nephews.

Memorials may be made to the Dime Box Brethren Church or the charity of one's choice.
