

Maxine Mildred Grohman

January 22, 1927 - February 18, 2011

Grohman, Maxine 84, of Caldwell formerly of Bastrop passed away peacefully Friday, February 18, 2011 in Smithville at The Towers Nursing Center. A Celebration Of Life is planned for February 25, 2011 at 2:00 p.m. at Phillips & Luckey Chapel in Caldwell. The family will receive guests from noon till service time. In lieu of flowers the family is requesting memorial donations may be given to the American Heart Association or The National Kidney Foundation. Mrs. Grohman was born January 22, 1927 in Hye, Texas to parents Victor Edward Striegler and Mary Bell Rountree. She retired from the University of Texas where she worked in the custodial department. Maxine was very sociable rather it was her distinctive laugh or her hugs. She loved flowers, gardening, quilting, playing dominoes especially forty-two and cooking, watching QVC and she definitely loved her bling bling jewelry. She was preceded in death by her parents, two; brothers; George Striegler, Victor Edward Striegler and infant sister Leola Mae Striegler. Maxine is survived by her daughter, Donna Johnson of Caldwell, Three, brothers; Edward Striegler of Friedricksburg, VA., Maurice Striegler & Wife Rosemary of Salado, TX., and Jay Striegler of Houston, TX., three, sisters; Lillian Cable of Burlington, NC., Gladys Wiseman & Husband Dr. Bill Wiseman of Tifton, GA., and Virginia Beam & husband Harold of Vernon, TX.

Tribute Wall

“ Maxine Mildred Grohman

Audrey Overall - February 27, 2011 at 09:03 PM