I did not personally know Melodie, but, couldn't help but notice her when I attended functions at Gause school where my grandson was a classmate of hers. I noticed her because she was just a natural beauty. Even though I never spoke to her, I sensed a sweet, sweet spirit, and, according to those who knew her, my instincts were spot on. I am so heartbroken for her family and friends. She clearly was such a positive force, touching so many who will miss her terribly. I hope those who knew her well will find peace, honoring her by living their lives as she would've undoubtedly lived hers, with purpose and grace. You will continue to be in my prayers.

“ Wish I could be with you all during this sad time. Since I am so far away from my Texas family I haven't had the privilege of knowing all of my great nieces and nephews well. The last time I visited, I remember her sweet smile when I said "hello, how you've grown!" I am told by all the family how special she was. I am with you all in my thoughts and prayers. I'm sure her Uncle George will welcome her to heaven and can tell her lots of stories about her dad and Grandpa Steve that will keep her laughing!!

“ Melodies great-grandfather, Walter Schumacher, is my Mother's (Rosie Schumcher Rychlik) first cousin. I worked for the Caldwell Post Office when Melodie's Mom, Jimanne would bring her two beautiful daughters to my service window when they were very young. Anytime I see Jimanne she lets me know about those little girls. My wife, Donna, and I extend our deepest thoughts and prayers for all the family during this time.

“ Sweet, beautiful girl, I don't have the words to say how much she is missed.

My favorite memory (and last time seeing her) was at my wedding, she was waiting for me at the dance floor, pulled me over to her, grabbing both of my hands. She told me she loved me and was so happy. Still holding my hands, she spun me around and started dancing with me, still not letting go. We nearly cried from laughing and having so much fun. We danced and danced until we needed a break and went to the balcony. She hugged me and told me how much she loved me. We danced some more after we cooled off. When it was time for her to go, I didn't want her to leave, so I walked her to her car. I hugged her so hard and told her I wanted to see her again soon. I could tell she didn't want to go, either, but it was late. We gave each other one last hug. She was an amazing person, the best one I've ever met.
