“ From Mel's own description of herself, "I'm pretty darned unique, talented, artistic, eclectic, and fun loving." She was all of those things and "MOORE" (as she liked to say). She was also kind, giving, creative, an amazing cook, and very poetic. She could also, on occasion, be a thorn in my eye, and in the eyes of others, but never when she was thinking straight. She had been very broken over the loss of Melony, and she was still a bit lost trying to find the next chapter to truly define who she really was, and who she always wanted to be. What I do know, from many phone calls and back porch visits with her, she loved her children dearly and was extremely proud of them all. Rest in PEACE, Melody. It's been a long while...

“ I grew up in Shenandoah and met Melody and Melony during the summer of 1977 when I joined the Shenandoah Sharks. Every other year, they were in my age group. Every single summer through at least the start of high school, we hung out at the pool for hours on end. I will miss my friends forever. Melody had so much love for her children and was incredibly proud of all their accomplishments. She was such a big-hearted woman and a great friend. God rest her soul and please watch over her babies.

“ Melody - We didn't get to spend much time together over the years but we both loved your sister. It deeply saddens me that we won't be sharing the beach together this summer & celebrating our birthdays. I know that you are catching Melony up on all the gossip and sharing more funny stories. I miss you both but so glad you have each other to share God's glorious blessings of eternal life in heaven with no more sorrow or pain. Fly high sister-I will be thinking of you both each & every time I walk the seashore. Much love - Shannon Acreman
