“ My heartfelt condolences to Dani and the family. I had the honor and the privilege to work with Mike professionally. Mike was one of the most influential mentors I had. Mike was more than a boss; he was someone who led with integrity, patience, and quiet strength. He had a rare ability to bring out the best in those around him, offering guidance not just through instruction, but through example. He took the time to listen, to learn, to teach, and to encourage growth, both professionally and personally. Many of us are better in our careers — and in our lives — because of his steady support and genuine care. Mike’s legacy lives on in the young people he guided, the cities he shaped, and the lives he touched. He will be deeply missed. Lata & Harish
