“ I was so saddened by the death of Ms. Mildred. She and my mother got to be special friends at Copperas Hollow; they ate all meals together..I never went there that Ms. Mildred didn't have a great big smile on her face, even when I know that she didn't feel like smiling. She always made my day better after I visited with them for awhile. I think she had so much grace in her walk in life. I hadn't known her but 10 months, but I am so thankful she became a part of my mother's life and mine. God bless your family and sympathy to each of you.
