

Mildred Marie Moebus

September 26, 1929 - December 23, 2023

Funeral services for Mildred Moebus, 94 of Pflugerville, Texas, will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 30, 2023 at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Serbin, Texas with Rev. John Schmidt officiating. The funeral services will be live streamed through the church's website at www.stpaulserbin.org. Burial will immediately follow in the church cemetery. Visitation will be held on Friday, December 29, 2023 from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. and on Saturday, December 30, 2023 from 7:00 a.m. until 8:00 a.m. at Phillips and Luckey Funeral Home in Giddings. The family will be present for visitation Friday evening from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.

Mildred Marie (nee Liepke) Moebus peacefully passed into eternal life, surrounded by her family, on Saturday, December 23, 2023.

Mildred was born on September 26, 1929 in Port Arthur, Texas to Martin and Ella (nee Bage) Liepke. Her family moved to Giddings, Texas when she was a small child. She met her future husband at the cafe where she worked as a young adult, in Giddings. On August 3, 1952, she married Arthur (Moe) Moebus. Together they had Parkway Cafe and a bakery in Giddings. After a few years they were offered teaching positions in Serbin. Mildred taught the lower grades until their first child was due. Mildred and Moe had three children, Rachel, Paul and Rebecca (Becky).

Mrs. Moebus was nurse, hostess and support to many in the St. Paul Lutheran School and congregation where they served for 17 years.

After leaving Serbin, Mildred was proprietress of Noack Grocery for many years. After her husband died in 1985, she cared for grandchildren and neighborhood children.

In her later years, it was her greatest pleasure to gather little ones and care for them. Mildred's other loves are Jesus first and foremost, her family and cooking. Anyone who was fortunate to sit at her table could count on a delicious, big meal.

Mildred was preceded in death by her parents, Martin and Ella Liepke; her husband, Arthur Moebus; one granddaughter, Heather Dlouhy; her sister and brother-in-law, Bernice and Woodrow Wilson, and a son-in-law, Pete Martinez.

Mildred is survived by her son, Paul Moebus of Pflugerville; her two daughters, Rachel and her husband, Dennis Haberer of Georgetown and Rebecca Martinez of Georgetown; seven grandchildren; seventeen great-grandchildren; one great-great grandson; her brother and sister-in-law, James and Patti Liepke of Dallas, and many nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Jeff Sharpe, Chris Moebus, Nick Moebus, Erich Rankin, Chris Haberer, and Brad Haberer.

Memorials may be made to St. Paul Lutheran School, 1572 County Road 211, Giddings, Texas 78942 or to the charity of one's choice.

“ So many neat memories of this godly woman and her family. She and Mom had a special friendship that brought our families together often. The parents played 42 while the kids wore themselves out having fun. The love of Jesus which reflected through this lady brightened the lives of those around her, and continues to do so even now as we look forward to that glorious reunion with all the saints whose hearts are fixed on our precious Savior! God be with you all.

Searching on the internet for another person and I came across this page. I am Patricia Moebus, born in NY in 1956 to Helen and Philip Moebus (paternal grandparents were Philip and Margaret Moebus (nee Bowles). Wondering if we are related somehow. Moebus is not a common name. Mildred sounds like a lovely woman. May she rest in God's eternal love.

Such a sweet lady. My mother really liked her so much. I remember going to the house once when I was young. She had baked Snickerdoodle cookies and we thought they were the best! She gave Mom the recipe so that's how we started making them. My kids loved them too and the oldest son would always bake them. I wanted to come today but it wasn't possible. So glad Mom and Millie got to visit once before mom died. My love and prayers are with all your family.

Moe and Mildred worked at the City Meat Market at one time. In later years, she was the babysitter for some of my children in Round Rock when day care was hard to find. Her kindness and love for everyone will always be remembered by our family, as well as her skill in getting toddlers to eat nutritious food. May she be united with Moe and fly with the angels.
