“ Mildred was such a kind lady. She always had a smile and a kind word. I will always remember how she would bring my dad food when he was sick and going through his illness and he couldn't get out of the house always. She would cook and drop off food for him. That was the kind of caring person she was and I know that she is resting with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ now.

“ Many fond memories of Mildred. ♥
Working together for Dr Burns.
The many laughs with Nancy & Daniel, especially days Dr Charles permeated the office after a night of garlic.
Trying MD 20/20 together after work, and being pregnant with our sons Nathan & Derrick.
Mildred was the sweetest!
May the Lord give her family strength, guidance and comfort during this very difficult time.
