Mildred Margaret Wiederhold

April 5, 1936 – October 22, 2025

Mildred Margaret Wiederhold, born Mildred Colley on April 5, 1936, passed away on October 22, 2025. A lifelong resident of Caldwell, Texas, Mildred's roots ran deep in the community she called home her entire life.

She was born to William Boyd and Harriett Ellen (Warren) Colley and was the beloved wife of Edwin Lee Wiederhold, whom she married on December 10, 1955. Together, they built a loving home and raised one son, Steven Boyd Wiederhold. Mildred was a devoted homemaker who took great pride in keeping a tidy house and always making sure there was a hot meal on the table for her family.

Her greatest joys were her family and her collection of chickens—each one a small treasure that reflected her warmth and humor. She found happiness in the simple things: caring for her home, sharing stories, and making everyone who visited feel loved and welcome.

Mildred's legacy continues through her son and daughter-in-law, Steven and Jacqui Wiederhold; her granddaughters and their husbands, Tasha and Steven Pipkin, and Hannah and Dakota Landrum; and her great-granddaughter, Linda Pipkin. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Her favorite scripture was Psalm 23, a reflection of her steadfast faith and gentle spirit.
