He was baptized at Ebenezer Lutheran Church on March 24, 1985 and confirmed on December 28, 2003 at Immanuel Lutheran Church. His confirmation verse was Psalm 23:1, "The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing." Growing up, Nathan loved going to school and reading books, especially about tractors. He graduated from Giddings High School. Nathan enjoyed being outdoors, feeding the animals, and gardening. His favorite activity was mowing the grass and "making hay". Nathan always looked forward to spending summer days with his grandma. One of his greatest joys was becoming an Honorary Firefighter for the Giddings Volunteer Fire Department. He will be remembered for his contagious smile, his true appreciation for gifts, and his joy for life.
