“ We were very saddened to hear of Connie's passing this week. She was a delightful lady. She was witty and fun. She always made light of any situation and that is a special gift few people have. She could smile and say something funny or giggle and everyone was comfortable immediately around her. I know she was very proud of her children. My mother loved being her sister. I will always have fond memories of her, despite not getting to see her very often after I grew up and moved away.
