

Olivia Marie Eichholz

July 30, 2007 - April 27, 2026

Olivia Marie Eichholz, beloved daughter of Christopher and Christina Eichholz, entered into the loving arms of Jesus on April 27, 2026, at the age of 18.

Services have been entrusted to Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home of Caldwell. A visitation will be held on Friday, May 8, 2026, from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., with a prayer service at 7:00 p.m., at 404 W. Buck Street, Caldwell, Texas 77836. A funeral service will be held on Saturday, May 9, 2026, at 1:00 p.m. at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Caldwell. The Eichholz family suggests wearing pink in honor of Olivias' favorite color.

Olivia was born in Humble, Texas, on July 30, 2007. From the moment she was born, she captured her parents' hearts. She grew into a wonderful daughter and an amazing big sister to Natalie and her brother Maxwell. Olivia loved her family deeply and cherished the time they spent together.

Olivia lived her life with a heart for service. She attended IL Texas Aggieland School in College Station, where she was a dedicated JROTC student. Olivia dreamed of joining the United States Air Force and serving something greater than herself. She had a passion for connecting with people from all walks of life and was learning Mandarin Chinese and Spanish so she could better reach and relate to others.

Olivia was also a hard and dedicated worker. She worked at Country Burger and Chili's, where she took pride in everything she did. Whether she was serving customers or helping her team, Olivia showed up with a strong work ethic, a positive attitude, and a willingness to go above and beyond. She built meaningful connections with coworkers and customers alike, leaving a lasting impression through her kindness and dependability.

She was just two weeks away from graduating high school and was a bright and joyful presence who brought life and energy to those around her. Olivia had a radiant spirit, a contagious smile, and a way of making everyone feel seen, valued, and loved.

Olivia shared a special and unmistakable bond with her beloved cat, Nala. The two were so much alike—gentle, affectionate, and full of personality. Nala was rarely far from Olivia's side, often following her from room to room or curling up close whenever she could. Olivia found comfort in Nala, and in many ways, Nala reflected Olivia's own spirit—warm, loving, and drawn to those she cared about most. Their bond was a quiet but constant source of joy in Olivia's life.

Her pastor at Aggieland Christian Church, where Olivia attended and received Christ as her Lord and Savior, shared that she was a light to everyone who knew her.

Her faith guided her life, and her love for Jesus was evident in her kindness, compassion, and servant's heart. Though her time here was far too short, Olivia's impact will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

Olivia is preceded in death by her paternal grandmother, Shirley Eichholz; paternal grandfather, Todd Taylor; and her aunts, Brenda Rigsby and Monica Eichholz Durbin.

She is survived by her parents, Christopher and Christina Eichholz of Caldwell; her sister, Natalie Eichholz; her brother, Maxwell Eichholz; her paternal grandfather, Wayne Eichholz; and her maternal grandmother, Jodi Taylor. She is also survived by her aunts, Shelia Merryman, Jane Taylor Arnett, Micki Taylor, Amanda Taylor, and Magaly Taylor; her uncles, Mike Merryman, Daniel Rigsby, Brandon Durbin, Dustin Lacewell, Todd Taylor II, Clint Taylor, and Bryan Arnett; along with many cousins and very dear friends. May Olivia's light and passion never be forgotten by all who knew and loved her.

“The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart;
the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil.
Those who walk uprightly enter into peace;
they find rest as they lie in death.”

— Isaiah 57:1–2

“ Olivia was in one of my classes. She was so bright and seriously was the light of that whole class. She'd always make sure she was the first to class and she'd stand by the door and say, "Good Morning (name)!". I never realized how much I loved it until now. She was so kind to everyone. I remember someone was joking about how they wanted Olivia to give them a ride and Olivia started laughing then paused for a second and said, "Wait are you being for real? Do you actually need a ride?". She was willing to give anyone a ride even after she graduated. I miss you so much, Olivia. Class is so quiet without you. I am so lucky I got to know you. Rest easy sweet girl. I love you. □

“ I loved cooking when Olivia came over because she always loved my Mexican food, but what she liked the most was white jasmine rice. She would ask for lemon juice with it, which I didn't understand at the time, but when you try it, it's actually not bad. Olivia was besties with my twin daughters, Emilia and Ava, and they had so many plans after graduation. My heart aches for her loss to her family, her friends, and everyone who knew her. I know that only time and God can heal our hearts, but the pain will forever stay.

“ I was a friend of Olivia's. We didn't talk much before she died since I transferred schools but our last texts to each other were "I miss you". I'm really missing you right now, sweet girl. I want to see your face again in front of me, so sorry I wasn't there when I should've been. Condolences to her wonderful family.
