Burial will follow in the Giddings City Cemetery. Visitation will be held Tuesday from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Giddings. Mr. Faske passed away Sunday at St. David's Medical Center in Austin. Otis Barton Faske was born on January 6, 1933 in Giddings, Texas to Otto Emil & Mary Josephine (Allen) Faske. He graduated from Giddings High School in 1950 and married Marjorie Jeanette Cizmar in Giddings, Texas on December 16, 1951. They were married for twenty-five years. Otis began his working career in his father's family jewelry business as a watch repairman and also worked at Kelly Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas in air combat instrument training where he helped to put B-50 Bombers and P-51 Mustangs into service for the Korean War. Later, Otis went into business with his brother-in-law, Clarence Meissner building homes and other construction projects in Houston and Clear Lake City, Texas. He even worked on a commercial shrimp boat in Louisiana. Otis's true joy came from being outdoors hunting and fishing, especially deep sea fishing. He was a true outdoorsman and we know he will finally have all the time he wants to catch the perfect fish in that "great river in the sky."
