

Pamela Haupt Young

August 23, 1949 - July 3, 2017

Pamela Haupt Young, formerly of Rockdale, Texas died peacefully Monday, July 3, 2017 in her home in Palmer, Texas surrounded by her family. Funeral services will be held at J.E. Keever Mortuary in Palmer, Texas on Wednesday, July 5, 2017 at 6:00 p.m. followed by services at Forest Grove Christian Church near Rockdale, Texas on Friday, July 7, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. with interment following at Forest Grove Cemetery.

Pam was born August 23, 1949 in San Angelo to Truman and Anna Jean Haupt of Rockdale. She married Douglas Wayne Young, of Rockdale, in 1968, shortly after graduating from Rockdale High School in 1967, and the two were united for just shy of 49 years. They made homes in Dallas, DeSoto, Long Valley, NJ and eventually Palmer, Texas, with a four year stint in Johannesburg, South Africa, where Pam fed her passion for golf.

Pam was a homemaker, who worked at many jobs, not the least of which was raising three children, but lastly as library aide, cafeteria director, and principal's secretary at Palmer High School. She lived most of her life with husband Douglas in Palmer with their three children who, along with her yard and flower beds, brought endless joy to her life. As first their number one fan, and later the number one fan to her eight grandchildren, she showed support to each of them, often seen at their sporting events with a huge grin on her newly misshapen face and Sonic drink in hand.

Pam's hobbies included entertaining, gardening, decorating, crossword puzzles, and card games. Her bubbly, outgoing personality was unaffected by first her battle with cancer and years later a stroke, followed finally by brain surgery. She was able to engage in good-humored repartee throughout it all; she truly never met a stranger.

She was preceded in death by her father, Truman; and sister, Brenda.

Pam is survived by her husband, Doug Young; children, Cassi, Niki, and Derek and spouses; eight grandchildren; mother, Jean Haupt; and brother, Jerry Haupt.
