

Pat H. Logan

December 4, 1931 - May 28, 2025

Pat H. Logan, 93, of Temple, TX, passed away peacefully on May 28, 2025, at Legacy of Crystal Falls Assisted Living Facility in Leander, TX. Pat was born on December 4, 1931, in Dallas, TX, to Aubrey and Mary (Sheppard) Logan. After moving to Thorndale, TX during his high school years, he quarterbacked the football team through a couple of banner seasons, to include a run for the conference championship his senior year in an undefeated season - a proud memory which he shared often. After graduation, Pat went on to serve in the U.S. Air Force from 1951 to 1955, specializing in helicopter maintenance at San Marcos AFB, TX.

Pat married Janie V. (Piraino) Logan in 1957, and after her passing in 1999, he married Claire K. "Caddie" (Kasner) Logan in 2001. He was a handyman, smooth dancer, German shepherd lover, and avid domino player - especially 42! In his retirement years, he realized a life-long dream of buying a farm and then proceeded to deem himself "Honorable MAYOR of Nineveh, Texas." He was affectionately called Pampa, Peepaw, Opa, and Poppy by his grands and greats.

Pat is survived by his wife, Caddie Logan; his son, Kevin Logan and wife

Deena; his daughters, Kathleen Collins, Kerin McAfee and husband Gary, and Kay Snow and husband Pat; Caddie's son Jeff Olsen and wife Susan; her daughter Christi and husband Dana. Pat was a proud grandfather to Christopher Logan, Cassi Kromer, Curtis Collins, Keely Collins, Logan McAfee, Shannon McAfee, Colton McAfee, Logan Snow, Christian Snow, Olivia Olsen-Glen, Mark Olsen, Gretchen Olsen and Heidi Olsen; and six+ great-grandchildren as well.

Pat was preceded in death by his parents Aubrey and Mary, his first wife Janie, his sister Mary Kate, and his brother Aubrey, Jr.

Pat will be remembered for his dry wit and love of family. And, in his words, "I'm fine. Y'all behave!"
