“ Adios "Cowboy".
*Pete was a dedicated Cowboys' fan.
He was a dedicated and hard worker at the area food give away.
He was at just about every Alcoa Retirees' meetings where he greeted guests and helped carry in desserts and food.
Pete retired from Alcoa where he worked in the Potlining department.
Pete was almost always the best dressed man in town! Lots of starch in his shirts and jeans.
Bea and I already miss Pete.

“As I leave the earth among the stars, I soar rising higher to thee I cannot ask for more. But to fly with wings unfurled to reach the vast beyond, my spirit is of the universe ~the universe is where I belong.”

Until we meet again Big Pete! Thank you for being my childrens only grandfather they ever knew. I will miss your surprise visits and seeing you at the kids functions. It's not goodbye it's see you later!
