Peggy Ruth (Rogers) Caldwell was born on June 1, 1935 to Roy Rogers and Lucille Guthrie at the family farm outside of Lexington in an area known as Bud Guthrie's. She was baptized early on in the Baptist faith. With her stepdad, Lealand Caldwell, being in the military, they were blessed to travel and be stationed in numerous areas. Peggy had four children, Tanya, Howard, Sherrie, and George. She was a very talented woman and was well known for being a singer and her work in the music industry. Proverbs 31 "Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all" is one of the best ways to describe Peggy's devotion to her family and community. She was a volunteer at the Sunshine House in Lexington for many years. She went to garage sales as often as possible to search for items for shut in families around the community. At one point in the 1970's, Peggy even wrote a book called Satan's Revenge. She enjoyed crocheting, sewing, oil painting, going on cruises and playing nickel slots.

Peggy passed away the afternoon of Sunday, February 4, 2024 at Sterling Oaks Rehabilitation.

She is preceded in death by father, Roy Rogers; her mother, Lucille Caldwell; step father, Lealand Caldwell; brother, Buddy Caldwell, and her great niece, Cloey Caldwell.

Peggy is survived by her children, Tanya Coury of Hempstead, Howard "Chip" Hosek of Galveston, Sherrie Hosek Vandament and fiancée, Bobby Joe Bruce of Nevada, and George Hosek of Manville; seven grandchildren, Tiffany Nelson and fiancée, Artorio Gorrostieta of Hempstead, Lealand Michael Brotherton of Sea Brook, Michael McHancy of California, Kelly Kay Wolff of Spring, Darla Masel of California, David Vandament of Nevada, and Daniel Vandament of Nevada; thirteen great grandchildren; grandson-in-law, Trinity Nelson of Waller, and a niece, Courtney Robison of Surfside.
